

"Leaky" churches

I had this dream on the evening of 16 March 2009. The building was covered in plastic and it was raining, leaking in everywhere. The "Owner" sat in front of it and the workers close by. The workers refused to work, they wanted more and better "food" from Him before they worked, He handed them pieces of meat and food and they devoured it but said its not enough and they want other food too.

The Owner just looked despondent and didn't answer them.

Then I saw the back garden of the building, the workers were standing there "training" people to use their weapons.. I saw the weapons, old rusted, useless guns, a pistol and a shotgun. The one "trainee" took the pistol and fired of a shot but it was so useless the bullet just plopped off.

The "trainee" jumped into his car and drove off, down the road. As he was driving he randomly fired of shots, and as he fired them I heard him quoting scriptures, but they were scriptures that had nothing to do with the situation and I remember thinking what's wrong with this guy, those scriptures won't help anyone, they aren't warfare scriptures just random verses taken from the bible.

Then he saw some "bad guys" in another car and started shooting at them, but the bullets gun was so useless it was like he was throwing the bullets at them, no effect at all. He fired of 4 of his 6 shots and chased after the car as one of his "ammo clips" fell out the car and under the wheels of the car of the "bad guys". He made a huge fuss and jumped out to get the ammo clip because he had wasted all his ammo trying to get a few bullets back. As he got back into his car a "bad guy" stormed towards him and I saw the guy was scared. End of dream.

I heard this scripture yesterday and it reminded me of the dream:

Isaiah 10:15 Can the ax boast greater power than the person who uses it? Is the saw greater than the person who saws? Can a whip strike unless a hand is moving it? Can a cane walk by itself?

Then I asked the Lord what is the interpretation of the dream, and this is what He said to me:

The building represents some churches, God is the owner and the workers are pastors, dominee's, elders, and bishops, whatever you want to call the leaders of the churches.

They are so busy worrying about how big their salaries are, what titles they have and should have, what influence they have over others, what their "rights and privileges" are, how they "deserve more respect" than "ordinary Christians" ext that they have become of no use, Gods houses are falling apart, leaky churches and they don't realize it or don't even care.

Then there's the training, they slap together old teachings and quote old clichés because their own relationships with God are at best wobbly and then they package it and tell poor church goers its "ten steps to this, five plans for that" and who knows what else, pretending it's all oh so spiritual while its "old weapons" with rusty ammo and no "fire power" but they sell it so good the "users" think their getting the deal of a lifetime and their now "warriors equipped for the battle field" and many other cliché quotes I won't go into.

Then the Christians go on the "road" they start "walking with God" which I put in quotes because they were never taught to walk with God they were taught to quote scriptures like parrots and mouth of cliché catch phrases thinking it all makes them so spiritual and "mature believers" while poor Daddy just shakes His head and waits for them to wake up from the self imposed daydream their living in.

They mouth of random scriptures, thinking their doing "warfare" and the demons are trembling.. (actually the demons are more like shaking, laughing so hard their shaking it is..) and they just go on and on.. and when they feel they must now "confront the enemy" they fire of random scriptures and threats thinking it makes them strong while it makes no difference at all.

All of this leave's the Father with one feeling, heartache, it hurts Him that so many profess Him with their mouths but don't know Him at all, these "leaky churches" teach them how to be good clones, all jumping the same, all clapping hands in "victory" , all "standing strong" .. When will they fix their roofs and start teaching children how to be children again, (Mark 10:15) how to come to the Father with child like faith and just come sit on His lap.. The battle is His and already won, we must just come in REAL relationship with the Victor, the Champion and we be default win anyway..

Why are we so busy playing church and "campaigning" for more "customers" so we can have more and more that we ignore the one and only reason for ministry, bringing the young ones to God and teaching them to hear His voice so He Himself can teach them all they need to do and know..

Why is this scripture so threatening to some?

1 John 2:27 But the anointing which you have received from Him abides in you, and you do not need that anyone teach you; but as the same anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, you will abide in Him.

We need (and there are many out there, some churches are doing a excellent job) real teachers, church leaders, pastors, teachers that put one thing above all, getting their congregation to listen to God THEMSELVES.. we don't need another "how to 10 point plan.." we don't want to hear how great you are and how wonderful YOUR relationship with God is, we want to see you preaching stuff that brings REAL CHANGE in people's lives, we want to see young ones grow, grow past us and come to the Lord in fullness, we want to see 1 John 2:27 become a reality and not just another cliché..

There is a place that I found for myself, its in my Daddy's heart, and in that place I found the answer to every question.. His love.. please help young ones find that place for themselves, please stop being threatened by others that the Lord uses and work together with them to help the Body come to its fullness, please stop thinking this is a cash cow to fund your habits and realize it's a calling from God and its one that should make you fear and tremble.

Philippians 4:5 Make it as clear as you can to all you meet that you're on their side, working with them and not against them. Help them see that the Master is about to arrive. He could show up any minute!

Isaiah 10:15 Can the ax boast greater power than the person who uses it? Is the saw greater than the person who saws? Can a whip strike unless a hand is moving it? Can a cane walk by itself?

I quoted this earlier... if you in ANY way work in Gods service, please take this in, you are an axe, a saw, a whip, a cane.. you are NOT the Hand, its not you making anything happen, its not your anointing, its not your calling, its not your vision, its not your church, its not your gift, its not you healing, its not you prophesying, it has and always will be just one person.. GOD.. if you feel offended by these pages go read them again and ask God to show you why you feel offended and you might be shocked into reality of what you have believed you are doing while it was God all along.
