

Dust settled...

We are here for a reason, Lord why do we forget so easily, so quickly distracted, like a dog seeing a flying stick our eyes are swayed by nonsense, fleeting things, worries that should not be worries at all, doubt, negativity etc... and He just waits patiently until we stop being drawn to nonsense and distracted by dust in the wind and turn our eyes back to Him yet again, and incline our ears to His voice once again... We truly had to be saved by grace because our All-knowing Father knows of our own we would never ever make it, not one of us... Dust settled, eyes and ears searching, Father smiling, knowing He can yet again show us how much He loves us... Thank you Jesus...
