

Facing our giants, unprepared...

Peter said to Him, though I should die with You, yet I will not deny You. All the disciples also said the same. (Matthew 26:35)

Peter and the disciples thought they were ready for what God was going to put them through, Jesus knew better, but still He loved them, took them through it, and restored them after His resurrection, and used them mightily in His Kingdom.

God often brings us to and through things that we think we will be prepared for, but He knows we are totally unprepared, not to destroy us, but to mature us, for only in the difficult seasons do we truly grow.

Do not try to hide from your giants – even when you feel totally unprepared – but face them, knowing that God is on your side fighting with and for you.

Your giants might be addiction, marital problems, financial difficulties, dealing with compromise, pornography, family disputes, or anything of the sort, God is still able to bring you victory.

I choose to pray this today, will you join me in this prayer: Lord we choose to face our giants, knowing that You are fighting with and for us, and with your help we will walk in victory. In Jesus holy name. Amen

Love in Christ
