

Newsletter – January 2018 (Quarter 1)

Dear friends

Welcome to 2018! We hope that you are as excited about the new year as we are.

We decided to take the opportunity to change the format of the newsletter a bit – keeping in step with the idea of a new year, new season. Going forward the newsletter will go out quarterly.

2018

We felt God say “Piecemeal: “Unsystematic partial measures, taken over a period of time.”

Expect to see the Lord fitting together seemingly random situations and events. In hindsight you will realise they fit together perfectly to form the path you have been seeking the Lord for. He will do it, just trust in His ways and thoughts, for it is much higher than yours. “

Hope

We all need hope, but it seems that there is less and less of this going around. People are weighed down by the economy, leaders, politicians, families, illness, disasters and just life in general. But we as Christians have Christ, we have God’s Word and we have the Holy Spirit. We need to dig our heels in and find our hope in God’s Word again. Yes, life is difficult for us as well. Yes, we have challenges – but we have MORE, we have a Father who gave His everything for us, we have a Bridegroom who laid down His life and we have a Spirit that wants to come alongside us and help us ... so, why not take God on his very specific promises, Words like “I will never leave you nor forsake you”, “I will make a way”, “REST in Me”, “Everything works together for those who love God and are called according to His purposes”. The most wonderful things happen when we surrender to God and to the way He works things out. He has not changed since the Word was written, and He will not change now.

May we return to true HOPE this year.

Israel 2017

As you may remember, we had the opportunity to visit Israel last year September / October. This was not exactly a planned trip. It started out as a dinner date to celebrate the 40-month mark since “leaving Egypt”. Which turned into a “let’s go on a nice proper holiday”, to which the Lord contributed by saying: “What about Israel”. And, in less than three months we were standing on Israeli soil – amazed and overwhelmed by God’s love and goodness.

We tried to keep an open mind: we are not Jews by birth and felt that it is really important to honor the Jewish way of life and believes, but we cannot fall into the practise thereof since we are not Jews. We are Gentiles save by grace through Jesus Christ. From this basis we experienced many places like Nazareth and Galilee as Jesus would have (in the flesh). And Jerusalem and Gethsemane as He did (in the Spirit).

Standing at the Western Wall was like standing in the Holy of Holies – the Presence of God is unmistakable and almost tangible. Here we felt the Father, in His majesty, in His power and in His love.

Sitting at Galilee, looking out over the sea we could almost hear Jesus making a joke with the disciples.

Standing in the hugeness of the hard Negev, we could understand why the Israelites murmured and why they needed faith to follow God.

In short, the Bible became more of a reality and less of an idea.

There are too many things to mention now and we realise that God will continue to give us greater revelations as we continue to walk with Him long after we have been to Israel. In time we would like to share some of these revelations with you.
