

The truth about resisting pride

The Lord is mercy, and love, such mercy and love. But the Word says God will not go against His own Word.

The Word says God resists the proud, but is close to and gives favor to the humble. (James 4:6)

Because God cannot go against His Word, He must resist us when we are walking in pride.

Even if it breaks His heart, He cannot help us while we are walking in pride, for He must honor His Word and resist us.

So the next time you want to blame God for "not coming through on His promises", just sit down for a second and test your own heart first.

Pride also includes getting our identity from our work, titles, possessions, ministry, spiritual experiences ect. Remember all the revelation I share is from self-experience, so it's definitely not shared as judgment. In truth my heart is broken right now by this revelation and the vision regarding the "rags" I will also share.

Love in Christ
