

Vision - New Wineskin's

This happened 20 February 2012 during soaking session.

I was laying on crystal ocean.

Two angels stood over me, one to my left and one to my right. The one to my left poured water out of a bucket over me (purification), it covered me completely and drew into my skin, the one from the right poured milk over me (blessing, provision), this also covered me completely and drew into my skin, then the one on the left poured Blood that also covered me completely and drew into my skin (Washed in Blood of Lamb), then the one on the right poured Oil that covered me completely and drew into my skin (Anointing of the Holy Spirit).

Then they cut open my skin from head to toe like taking of plaster of Paris, when they removed it my skin was soft and pure white like a baby's and I said "but what about everything that the Lord has put on me over the years", the Lord replied "everything has become part of your DNA" immediately I grew to double my size I was with large muscles and bigger in height than I was in the spirit than ever before.

I was reminded of new wineskins for new wine, the Lord giving a bigger spiritual body to handle more in the spirit.

Let the Lord stretch and expand you so that you will be able to grow into the new things He has for you.

Love in Christ
