

Clear away the rubble before you build

Each day is a new day, each morning you can and must build on the stones laid so far and build higher. Just clear out all the rubble you have lying around in the bricks before you build further.

It doesn't matter if you or someone else caused the rubble just get rid of it. You can only build a strong house if there is no rubble weakening the layers.

Jaco Kruger – 23 February 2006