

Word – Trust Me or don't trust Me

Why do you always expect the worst of Me?

Why do you always expect that I will not come through for you?

I am busy exposing things in your hearts that I need to deal with that you can grow. Or do you prefer to be treated like children?

Because if you want to be treated like children you will stay children. Just like the spies that felt like grasshoppers around the Canaanites and who were also treated so, I cannot treat and use you as co-laborers if you want to stay children. If your faith is not strong, I cannot make you stand.

I am not busy destroying you, I am busy removing the blinders of the world that you might come out of this "natural" survival mentality into My supernatural more than enough mentality, and live in it.

Speak life and experience life. I am not saying just proclaim a bunch of nonsense, I am saying get Word from Me and My word and speak it.

See the planes are filled with indecision, you ones standing on the Mountain cannot speak assurity over the planes when you have indecision in your own hearts. Trust Me or don't trust Me, it is very simple.

Love in Christ
